

PHILADELPHIA'S
PARK SYSTEM

Press Release

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
Released 4/8/08

East Park Fun Fair

Contact:
Debbie Carr
Environmental Education Director
215-683-0218

Good Visuals – Photo Ops – Children & Families

WHEN: Saturday, April 12, 2008, 11:00 AM – 3 PM

WHERE: 33rd Street & Diamond Streets (next to Mander Playground and the tennis courts.)

WHAT: Community Fun Fair for Families – East Park Fun Fair

WHO: PA Department of Conservation and Natural Resources, the Philadelphia Department of Public Health, Fairmount Park, East Park Revitalization Alliance, Philadelphia Department of Recreation, and Audubon PA

DETAILS: Family oriented outdoor event in East Fairmount Park. A wide variety of activities will be available for all age groups including: mini horseshow, meet a live falcon and hawk with Audubon Pennsylvania, tap dancing and line dancing, play children's colonial games with the historic houses, make your own hand-dipped candle, take part in a chess tournament, meet Curby Bucket from the Philadelphia Recycling Office and try disc Frisbee golf. Also included will be food, music, and demonstrations of bicycling and tennis. This event kicks off the "Keystone Active Zone" and "Discover Fairmount Park in Your Neighborhood" programs and is sponsored by the PA Department of Conservation and Natural Resources, the Philadelphia Department of Public Health, Fairmount Park, East Park Revitalization Alliance, Philadelphia Department of Recreation, and Audubon PA. All activities are FREE. For additional information call 215-683-0218

Fairmount Park is Philadelphia's system of parks encompassing over 9,200 acres, all within the City of Philadelphia. Made up of 63 separate parks that range from inner city neighborhoods to vast natural areas, Fairmount Park covers 10 percent of the city's real estate. For more information about the Park, please visit our website: www.FairmountPark.org